CITY SAVER SALES DEADLINE
Thursday September 29th

Parents and Students:

A friendly reminder that this week is the last week for City Saver sales - deadline to turn in all monies is this Thursday September 29th. I will also be accepting any leftover books that you couldn't sell - but let's try and sell them all. The band is still short of making the 500 book mark for the Qdoba Taco Party, and there are still lots of books checked out for sale.

I will be at the school this week in the band room parking lot from 5:45 until around 6:30 on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Please come and see me if you need anything.

Thank you
Karolyn Bates
